<sup>2</sup> Louisiana and Indiana represented in their letter that Defendants indicated they take no position on their request but that the State AG Co-Lead Counsel "have refused to accept any additional Co-Leads to the State AG Track" and "offered only to create a new 'Steering Committee' sub-tier[.]" (ECF No. 224 at 2.) However, the State AG Co-Lead Counsel subsequently filed a letter stating they do not oppose Louisiana and Indiana's request for leave to file a motion seeking to appoint two additional attorneys as Co-Lead Counsel in the State AG Track, but that although they do not oppose this request for leave, they would like the opportunity to confer further on this issue. (ECF No. 227.)

permitted to respond to that motion as appropriate and consistent with applicable federal and local rules.
